A stylized illustration of a tunnel entrance. The tunnel is dark blue with a white dashed line down the center. The entrance is framed by a grey, arched structure with black spikes. To the left of the tunnel entrance is a large, round, silver clock face with black numbers and hands. The clock shows a time of approximately 10:10. The background is a light blue gradient.
